Basic Horseshoe Tour Tournament Format:

40' & 30' Prime Divisions, (over 40% entering average):

Open Division, (under 40% entering average):

Non-mixed, meaning that players are divided into two groups based on pitching distance. The groups are seeded into multiple final four brackets based on the results of the qualifying round. There are usually two rounds of play, as follows:

All Mixed Class Play, where players start and remain in classes of 8 to 10 players based on their entering ringer percentages. A final four bracket is made for every class. There are usually two, but up to three rounds of play, as follows:

Round 1- (Qualifying Round): Typically six games, top finishers based on ringer percentage move up directly to finals. Ties are determined by entering seed.

Round 1- (Qualifying Round): Typically six games, top 4 finishers in each class move up directly to class finals based on ringer percentage. The bottom players in each class are eliminated.

Round 2- (Final Fours): Qualified players are arranged according to performance in prior rounds into multiple Final Four player brackets playing head to head, best of 3 game matches. Winners advance, losers are finished. One bracket is formed for every four players in each division. All players who entered the over 40% divisions will reach a finals bracket. All places per bracket are paid. The top 5 final four brackets (A-E) will receive at least $80 for 3rd place. Final four brackets below that level will be paid a minimum of $100-$80-$50-$50.

Round 2- (Final Fours): Qualified players are seeded according to performance in prior round into one Final Four player bracket per class where they play head to head, best of 3 game matches. Winners advance, losers are finished. All four places in every bracket are paid. 100% payout in Open division classes.

Note: Above is the most commonly suggested format for a Horseshoe Tour Tournament. Formats can and will vary from site to site based on their specific needs and requests. Tournament Summary Sheets are created in advance of every tournament and are made available to all players prior to play. The summary contains all the specific customized details for that event, including the overall tournament schedule, player lists, specific pitching times and all prize fund breakdowns per division/class. For divisions over 40% their prize funds will receive added sponsor money. Open Division payouts are based on entry fees only.
